JOHN HEERY WAS KILLED

GROUND TO PIECES BENEATH A KATY TRAIN EARLY SUN DAY MORNING.

BOTH LEGS AND ONE ARM CUT OFF

Died at the City Hospital at 12:30 P. M., and the Funeral Services Were Conducted by Fr.
McNamee Today.

John Heery, 23 years old, son of Mrs. James Hort, of Seattle, Wash., was horribly mutilated by an M. K.
& T. freight train in the local yards at 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning and died at the City hospital less than eight hours later.

Both legs were amputated at the waist and his left arm was severed close to the shoulder. In addition, he sustained a dangerous scalp wound on the left side of his head, and his chest and stomach were lacerated and bruised, presenting a ghastly appearance.

The mangled remains were found lying on the M. K. & T. tracks about one hundred and fifty yards west of the old "X" office by R. E. Fisher, a night car inspector for the Katy.

One hundred yards west of where the body was discovered, switchmen found one of the amputated legs. The man's hat and a pound of coffee, which was tied in a handkerchief, were found lying near the body.

The M. K. & T. ambulance was summoned and the injured man removed to the Katy hospital, where everything was done to alleviate his pain. He was perfectly conscious and spoke plainly. After having his injuries dressed he was removed to the City hospital, where he died at 12:30 o'clock.

Heery had been living with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Gibney, 334 Hill street. He was a member of a fishing party camping on the banks of the Lamine river near Sweeney and came to town Saturday to secure additional provisions.

The supposition is that he attempted to catch a moving freight train and was thrown on the track and run over. His body was dragged for a distance of a hundred yards, and after the accident he lay on the right of way until his groans attracted the attention of Mr. Fisher.

Although he retained consciousness to the last, Heery was the most badly mutilated man ever taken to the Katy hospital. In addition to the injuries above mentioned, the whole left side of his head was completely torn away. Likewise his chest and stomach, due to being dragged by the train.

Coroner Miller notified the constable to summon a jury, which was done, and after viewing the remains at 8:30 o'clock this morning adjournment was taken until 3 o'clock this afternoon, when testimony will be introduced to show the exact manner in which Heery was killed.

The following comprise the coroner's jury: Edward Donohue, C. A.
Harris, A. B. White, G. W. White, J.
A. Penn and David Hartshorn.

Funeral services were conducted over the remains at St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock this morning.
Rev. Fr. B. R. McNamee officiating, and burial was made in the Catholic cemetery.

Besides his grandparents, Heery leaves two aunts, residing in this city. He had not been employed recently, but was well known to nearly all of the residents of the eastern portion of the city.

FORMER TEACHER HERE

WAS MARRIED AT LA JUNTA, COLO. ON THURSDAY EVEN-ING, JUNE 25TH.

SEVERAL SEDALIANS WERE THERE

Now on a bridal Trip, But After July 10 at Home on the Olive Branch Ranch, Near Rocky Ford, Colorado.

The Democrat-Sentinel is in receipt of the announcement of the marriage of Miss Mary Lenora Wells, a popular former Sedalia girl, to John William Leering, owner of a ranch, situated two miles west of Rocky Ford, Colo.

Miss Wells is a daughter of Mrs.
Laura E. Wells, a former resident of this city, who left here about two years ago for the Centennial state, where she has been residing since.
Miss Wells for a term of four years was employed as a teacher in Sun-mit school here.

The wedding occurred in the parlors of the Harvey house at La Junta, Colo., at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, June 25. Rev. Louis M. Pot-shinsky, pastor of the First M. E. church of Rocky Ford, performed the ceremony in the presence of the bride's mother and sister, Miss Alice Wells, and the following Sedalians:
Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Dunkin, Mrs.
Clark Van Etten and daughter, Miss Emma.

The bridal party left Rocky Ford at 6 o'clock that evening and rode to La Junta. Following the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Leering are now on their honeymoon trip, and after July 10 will be at home to friends at Olive Branch ranch, Rocky Ford, Colo.

The bride is well known in this city, where she has many friends. She is a niece of Mrs. A. W. McKenzie and Mrs. Lee Looney, of this city.
A host of friends here will join the Democrat-Sentinel in wishing for the couple a full share of the blessings of life.

Front street and Lydia avenue in Kansas City, was broken into Saturday and 600 sacks of flour stolen.

til late in the afternoon, when the railroad notified the police. No arrests have been made and the police have been unable to locate the flour.

WINS $35,000 GAMBLING

ATTACKED BY THIEVES AND EN-TIRE SUM WAS TAKEN FROM HIM.

THEN THROWN NAKED INTO A LAKE

M. Lambert, a Man of Means, Had a Most Remarkable Experience, the Details of Which Are Set Forth in Dispatch.

Paris, June 29.—M. Lambert, a man of independent means living in the Pue Quincampoix, in Paris, has had an unpleasant adventure in the little town of Enghien, in the suburbs, in which there are a casino and a club where gambling is carried on.

Enghien is reached by train from Paris in about 11 minutes. Recently
M. Lambert went down to Enghien, and after dinner spent a pleasant half hour at the "little horses" table, where he won about $100.

Pleased with his winnings, he went to the door of the club, which is in a room situated on the first floor of the same building, and asked for admission. The man at the door told him that, although he was not a member, he could probably be admitted in a very short time.

M. Lambert said that he was willing to pay any necessary entrance fee, and after formalities—which lasted exactly ten minutes—he became a member of the club. There, instead of "little horses," baccarat was being played.

M. Lambert was lucky. He at first lost half the money that he had won downstairs at the "little horses" table, but then he began to win, and won throughout the evening, finishing by taking the bank and rising a winner of a little over $35,000.

He went off with this money in his pocket, but left the club and casino building and walked down the road towards the railway station. Two men followed him. M. Lambert remembered to have seen them in the room, but paid no particular attention to them.

Suddenly the men rushed forward one on either side of him—tripped him up and methodically went through his pockets. They took his money, his watch and chain, his scarf pin, and the rings on his fingers.

Then they undressed him, and, with the deliberation which had characterized all their movements, threw him into a lake near by.

It is not a particularly well-smelling lake, but fortunately it is not very deep, and M. Lambert, who can swim a little, made his way to shore.

The luck which, except in one instance, had been with him all the evening, threw a policeman in his way. The officer was rather surprised at seeing a naked man emerge from the water, but M. Lambert explained matters and borrowed the policeman's cloak.

They went together to the police station, where more clothes were lent to M. Lambert, and he returned to Paris by the last train. But neither his clothes, his money nor the thieves have been discovered.

KILLED A ROBBER

Marshal of Osborne Caught Two Loot-ing—One Killed, One Escaped.

St. Joseph, Mo., June 29.—Matthew Ford, town marshal of Osborne, Mo., killed a robber in an exchange of shots there early this morning. Marshal Ford found two men in a hardware store. When discovered one fled and the other fired at the marshal with a shotgun.

Ford returned the fire with two shots, both taking effect. The dead robber has not been identified. Several stores had been burglarized, but all the booty was recovered.

HE HAD KILLED TWO MEN

Motorman Became Despondent and Committed Suicide.

St. Louis, June 29.—Just after Peter Schilling had shot himself in the right temple at his home on the Rock road, near Belleville, his 6-year-old son, John Schilling, who had heard the shot, entered the house.

He saw his father lying on the floor with a nickel-plated revolver in his hand. Schilling was a motorman on the East St. Louis and Suburban line and his daily run was between East St. Louis and Belleville.

Two men had been killed by his car within the past three years. The fatalities were under such circumstances that the company did not hold Schilling to blame and his position was not in danger. But the tragedies preyed constantly on his mind.

A brother, George Schilling, night captain of the Belleville police force, noticed recently that he was in a gloomy state of mind and urged him to cheer up.

"It's no use, George," he replied.
"You don't know what it's like to have killed two men."

Mrs. Werner Some Better.

Mrs. Elmo Werner, who for a week has been bedfast with stomach trouble, is pronounced better today.

FIVE LOST THEIR LIVES

FLOOD IN KANSAS LAST NIGHT WAS VERY DISASTROUS IN MANY WAYS.

CLOUD BURST WAS RESPONSIBLE

Waters Came So Suddenly That the People Had No Time to Escape
Before the Flood Was Upon Them.

Wellington, Kas., June 29.—Five known to have been drowned and a number of persons are missing as the result of the overflow of Kargu creek, east of here, caused by the cloudburst last night. The dead are: Mrs. Ed West, Mrs. West's mother-in-law, Mr.
Hearst, a girl 3 years old, a child named Sherman and Mrs. Smith or Johnson, colored.

The flood came without warning and carried houses and other buildings away before the people could reach places of safety. A number of people floated away in their houses or on the roofs, many seizing the limbs of trees as the houses floated by and pulled themselves to places of safety.

During the entire night men and boys worked industriously in canoes rescuing people from trees and the tops of houses.

The damage to property cannot at this time be estimated.

JUDGE WALLACE TO LEAVE

Will Be Heard at the Court House Tomorrow Night.

Judge William H. Wallace, of Kansas City, who is a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, and who has been endorsed by the Missouri Antislavery league, will address the people of Sedalia at the criminal court room at the court house at 8 o'clock Tuesday night, the 30th inst.

Judge Wallace has made a strong fight for the observance of the Sunday law in his home city, and his stand in this direction has given him wide prominence throughout the state.

The general public, and especially the ladies, will be welcome at the court house tomorrow night, and no doubt all will be entertained and instructed by what Judge Wallace has to say.

Joplin Railroad Suffers From Attack

Pittsburg, Kas., June 29.—Dynamiters last night blew up the tracks of the Joplin and Pittsburg Railway company at Chicopee switch, seven miles south of here. The act was the outcome of the feeling against the railroad company because of a recent raise in fares.

The Democrat-Sentinel extends its congratulations.

SALOON LICENSE QUESTION.

At Saturday night's meeting of the city council, which was convened expressly for considering the advisability of increasing the city saloon license, the question was discussed, but owing to the absence of two members of the council, the meeting was postponed to an adjourned meeting to be held tonight. This is a matter that the council should not hesitate to take action upon at once.The license for saloons in Sedalia should be raised, and no time should be lost in so doing. During the recent local option campaign this paper took a stand against local option and for the licensed saloon, and this stand was taken upon the theory that a high license would avoid the evils that it believed would necessarily follow the adoption of prohibition for the city; and if we mistake not, the liquor dealers themselves, during the campaign, held up the same idea to the public.It is, therefore, a matter of surprise that the saloon people are contending against the very proposition to which they gave their acquiescence when the question of license or no license was being fought out.As a matter of fact, there are a vast number of people in Sedalia who voted with the wets only because they coincided with the views of the Democrat-Sentinel, fully expecting that the licenses would be raised at the first opportunity. It was contended at that time in these columns that high license would result in forcing the low dives and grog shops, of which there are too many, out of existence, and these views were upheld and supported by many of the best citizens of the city.It has been asserted that the dives and grog shops referred to are owned and fostered by the big brewing concerns. If this be true, drastic measures should be taken by the council to compel them to close. The substantial men engaged in the liquor business themselves should get behind this movement and aid thecity in forcing these places out of existence and elevate their own business to a higher plane of respectability.The saloons of Sedalia, conducted by responsible men, should be able to pay an aggregate of $30,000 for license just as easily as the thirty saloons can pay the same sum as they are now doing.From some of the expressions made at Saturday night's meeting there would appear to be a feeling of distrust toward the county court with reference toward the licensing of saloons. There is no occasion for this, and we do not believe there is any desire or intention on the part of the members of the county court to play
"hog" with the city.These gentlemen, if we know them at all, are not built along these lines. They have simply grasped the prevailing sentiment of the voters, as expressed recently at the polls, and have beaten our city fathers to the high license idea. The council should have gone into this matter at its first regular meeting after the election.There should be no occasion for any contention or misunderstanding between these two law-making bodies, and to avoid any such conflict, it would be a good idea to have a committee from the city council meet the county court, and in a friendly spirit go over the situation and adopt such measures as will be best for all concerned, thus carrying out the wish of the people.That the men composing the county court are fair-minded and will deal with the city fairly is not to be doubted. But above everything, the liquor interests should understand most emphatically that if they defeat the present movement for an increase in license, it will act as a boomerang, for which they will eventually suffer.

DESPERATE CONDITIONS.

In the army pull is mightier than the sword by all odds. It is no wonder that conditions in the military service, as described by Chairman Hull, of the house military committee, drawn from all but three lines in NewMr. Hull's son was made a major and soon afterwards lieutenant colonel, in violation of the rules of promotion by seniority and merit. The son-in-law of Senator Warren, chairman of the senate military committee, was promoted from the rank of captain to that of brigadier general at one bound, in violation of the same rule. General Wood, for being a chum of the president, was raised from the rank of colonel to that of major general. Political pull and personal favoritism have filled the higher ranks of the army with incompetents; and this has disgusted the trained officers, who have been kept down by that vicious policy.It is now proposed to conciliate those professional military men by raising their pay, or, in other words, by bribery. But the panic brought on by extravagance and vicious tariff and financial legislation of the republicans is likely to make the bribery scheme impossible, and many young officers will abandon the army for civil life.

PROTECTION DOES NOT PROTECT

The deluded workmen for the steel trust are between the devil and the deep blue sea. They are supposed to be protected by the same tariff that protects the trusts, but as trust high prices and the republican policy of protection has produced a panic and consequent business depression more than half the trust workmen have found themselves unemployed so far this year. In order to have buyers, the trust reduces the price of its products, and it is pretty sure to reduce wages also, which would be an acknowledgment that the protection does not protect the working man.
But idle workmen will surely come to believe that the boasted republican prosperity is a fraud when they do not participate."Senator Jeff Davis is no joke," says the Cleveland Plaindealer. No, indeed; when one thinks of poor Arkansas and some of the great men who have represented her in the senate, he is anything but a joke—he's a problem, and almost a tragedy.The horse cars have been withdrawn from all but three lines in New York. That town is getting as progressive as the average little county seat."Where are last June's bride?" asks the New York Mail. They are busy dividing the time between watching the nursery and their husbands.Baseball keeps on being just as exciting to the masses in presidential years as in any other kind of years.
The fans don't yield to "nuffin."Locking Castro up in the closet is likely to prove more effective than taking him across the knee.

SECOND AND OSAGE.LOEB WILL NOT ACCEPT

Assures Taft That He Will Enter Private Business.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 29.—One result of Saturday's conference between President Roosevelt, Secretary Taft and National Committeeman Frank B. Kellogg and William L. Ward, according to one who was present, was to set at rest the persistent rumors that William Loeb, Jr., secretary to the president, would be made chairman of the national republican committee.

It was made clear to Secretary Taft by Mr. Loeb that he did not desire the chairmanship, that he had made plans to enter private business after March 4, 1909, and that under no circumstances could he be induced to accept. Mr. Taft is reported to have said to Secretary Loeb:

"If I am elected president next fall you may have any office which it is within my power to give."

To this Mr. Loeb replied that he appreciated the honor and confidence shown in him by Mr. Taft, but that his plans precluded his acceptance of the chairmanship.

FOUR MEN ESCAPE JAIL

ASSISTED IN REGAINING LIBERTY BY A VERY PRETTY YOUNG WOMAN.

SHE CRIED AND JAILER WAS SORRY

Then at Midnight, With Three Others, the Lover Quietly Slipped Away and Skipped With His Sweetheart.

Youngstown, G., June 29.—A beautiful young woman, dressed in the height of fashion, her face hidden under a merry widow hat and brown veil, helped four prisoners to escape from the county jail here.

One of the men, a pickpocket, is her sweetheart. She called at the jail and in tears begged to be allowed to see him. Jail officials, catching one glimpse of her beautiful face, led her to his cell.

"Charley, darling," she cried, as she embraced him through the bars. Then secretly she slipped him several cleverly contrived watch spring saws.

The next morning the young woman, whose identity is a mystery, waited below a window in the jail for her sweetheart and his pals. They succeeded in sawing the bars, clambered down to her and all fled. No trace of them has been found. Dainty Miss Mystery left the imprint of her chic tan slippers in the soft ground underneath the jail window.

That morning when John McIntyre, the jailor made his rounds, he found that Charles M. Crowley, Harry Cline and Lewis Cohen, declared to be pickpockets of national reputation, and Earl Geissler, a local man, were missing. Turnkey Ward was notified and declared that he had not heard a suspicious sound in the jail all night.

Investigation showed that the bars on a window high up in the wall of the jail at the end of a corridor had been sawed off. Ropes hanging from the window indicated how the escape had been effected. When the mysterious girl visited the prisoner she was watched closely, the jail officials say. However, she succeeded in giving her sweetheart the saws. It is also believed that she tossed him the rope from the outside by which the prisoners slid from the window to the ground. It is believed that Geissler overheard the other three planning the escape and by threats forced them to let him in on the project.

Edward Stahlreher, a prisoner sentenced to a six months' term in jail, is accused of aiding the quartet by keeping watch for them in the jail. The county commissioners have offered a reward of $500 for the arrest of the fugitives, particularly the beautiful young woman.

The police believe that the dainty young miss who so cleverly pulled off the jail delivery and freed her lover came here from Toledo. They also say that she showed the attorney for one of the prisoners a railroad ticket to Chicago.

PROHIBITION IN MAINE

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION IS TO WRESTLE WITH PROBLEM TOMORROW.

THE QUESTION OF RESUBMISSION

For Fifty Years Maine Has Endeavored to Legislate Prohibition Into the Citizen, But With Ill Success.

Bangor, Me., June 29.—Bangor is today filling up with politicians in advance of what will probably be the most exciting republican convention in the history of the state. Resubmission to a popular vote of the fifth amendment to the state constitution, which prohibits the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors, is the issue to be decided tomorrow.

The rival candidates for the gubernatorial nomination have taken opposite sides on this question. William T. Haines, of Waterville, declaring for resubmission, while his opponent, Bert M. Fernald, is opposed to such action.

Frederick E. Boothby, of Portland, is the "dark horse" in the race, and may possibly be given the nomination as a compromise. Mr. Fernald has been given the support of all the churches and Sunday schools of the state, and appearances today indicate his nomination.

Tax reform also enters into the question, but resubmission is the great and overwhelming issue.

For fifty years Maine has been trying to legislate temperance into its citizens, but even the more candid of the prohibitionists admit that the attempt has been a failure.

While many small towns are "dry," all of the larger cities are wet as in any license state, the only difference being that bad liquor is sold under some pretense of secrecy at an exorbitant price.

The democrats are almost a unit in demanding resubmission of the prohibition question, and that fact may cause the republican leaders to decide on an opposite stand in tomorrow's convention. The session will be held in the big auditorium, which will doubtless be crowded with delegates and spectators.

Early in his campaign Mr. Haines declared himself in favor of resubmission. Mr. Fernald has declared himself opposed to resubmission. Upon one side or the other are arrayed individuals, clubs, societies, newspapers, churches, politicians, every interest and every influence that exists in Maine.

The churches and conferences and Sunday schools have passed resolutions supporting Mr. Fernald's position, likewise the temperance clubs and most of the professional prominent women prohibitionists have declared in favor of Mr. Haines.

The arguments for and against resubmission can be briefly stated. Those who favor resubmission say that in the first place it is twenty-five years since the people have had an opportunity of expressing themselves upon the subject, and that in that time conditions have changed, and every thing may have changed.

Many or most of the supporters of the proposition, including Mr. Haines himself, say that they believe in prohibition, and that they are confident

BALLOON FELL IN RIVER

PROF. KING AND FOUR PASSENGERS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE.

THE GAS BAG BURSTS HIGH IN AIR

King Jumps, and, Thus Lightened, Craft Rises, Collapsing in Two Feet of Water—His 286th Ascension.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 29.—Soaring 3,000 feet in the air and watched by thousands of persons all over the city, the new balloon "Philadelphia," owned by the Philadelphia Aeronautical Recreation society, while on its initial trip Saturday afternoon, soon after its ascension from Point Breeze, collapsed and dropped, in two minutes' time, into the Schuylkill river, off Gibson Point.

Prof. Samuel W. King, the veteran balloonist, was in charge of the basket, and it was his courage alone that saved the party from death. He tugged at ropes, heaved over ballast, all the while begging the women to be calm.

Then, as the car hit the water, he vaulted over the side, with the agility of a school boy. The car, thus relieved bounded up a few feet, sailed to the western shore and collapsed in two feet of water. The party waded ashore.

Meanwhile Prof. King was swimming to the shore amid the cheers of thousands who had gathered. Dripping, the veteran balloonist landed, and, despite his 72 years, was none the worse for his experience.

"That was a close call," said Dr. Thomas Eldridge, president of the society, who was also in the balloon.

"Nonsense," said King. "Today was have made ascensions as many when you have gone up as many times as that you can count some worse achievements than that. My balloon was once shot at in the south years ago, when just as I was about to ascend a runaway slave jumped into the car."

Then the professor threw off his coat, wrung the water out of it, and proceeded to investigate the cause of the accident.

The balloon, after receiving 50,000 feet of gas at Point Breeze, rose at 2:50 o'clock. Its pilot was the veteran aeronaut and the passengers Thomas E. Eldridge, president; Geo. H. Zimmerman, vice president, and Mrs. E. Lockington, secretary of the Philadelphia Aeronautical Recreation society, and Mrs. Carrie G. Kilgore, the woman lawyer.

The ascension was all right. The big bag seemed as sound as a dollar when released, away it sailed straight up in the air 3,500 feet, until caught by a southeast wind, when it took a course to the northwest, while the crowd cheered. They were still cheering when suddenly the great bag seemed to burst and a great volume of gas poured out.

The basket swung about and the derelict fell rapidly. The shouts turned to a cry of horror and everyone ran in the direction of the shifting balloon and its imperiled passengers. Some one telephoned to the electrical bureau and the police tug went down the river to lend its aid. Prof. King was seen to be working frantically to check the fall, but the balloon dropped into the water.

LOSES LEG AS FRIEND DID

Railway Man's Solitude for Companion Is His Undoing.

Seattle, Wash., June 28.—E. P. Foster, a brakeman on the Columbia & Puget Sound railroad, is lying on a cot in Providence hospital, recovering from the amputation of a leg. At the King county hospital lies Henry Clifford, also recovering from the amputation of a leg.

Each man lost his limb under the wheels of a train, and Clifford's injury is directly due to the fact that he is a friend of Foster and was anxious to know how the latter was getting along.

Clifford was a fireman on the same road. He swung on the train at Benton to ask the engineer as to his friend's condition. Foster having been injured two weeks ago. In so doing he slipped and fell under the wheels and the train passed over his left leg below the knee.

Foster fell from the pilot of the locomotive of the same train about three miles south of the place where Clifford was injured, a little more than two weeks ago. The train passed over his right leg, also below the knee. The men are expected to recover.

HOPE FOR SEAT OF HULL

DEMOCRATS EXPECT TO GAIN BY REPUBLICAN FIGHT IN HAWKEYE STATE.

PARTY FEELING IS VERY BITTER

Judge Prouty and Present Congressman Each May Run, and Split the Republican Vote, Letting in Opponents.

Des Moines, Ia., June 29.—Democrats in the Seventh Iowa congressional district are jubilant over what they regard as their excellent chance of sending a democrat to the house of representatives to succeed Capt. J. A. T. Hull, chairman of the committee on military affairs.

It seems certain that no regularly nominated republican candidate will be on the ballot. Both Capt. Hull and Judge Prouty probably will be on the ballot as independents.

The contest over the close vote cast in the primaries, in which Prouty gave Hull such a close run that the courts must decide which is the republican nominee, is almost certain to be carried to the supreme court and there is little likelihood of its being decided before the November election. In that event there will be no republican candidate and either Hull or Prouty wishes to make the race he must get on the ballot by petition as an independent.

The democrats figure out their chances as being excellent in that they are united on one candidate and the republican vote will be split between two men, neither of whom will bear the official G. O. P. label. The Seventeenth district is composed of the counties of Dallas, Madison, Marion, Polk, Story and Warren, and when Hull was elected the last time the total vote was 33,127, divided as follows:

J. N. Smith, democrat, 11,464; J. A. T. Hull, republican, 19,617; Gill, socialist, 1,058; Johns, prohibitionist, 988; Hull's plurality, 8,153.

Assuming that Hull and Prouty would split the republican vote at the election as close as they did in the primaries, the democrats claim they will elect their candidate. They claim their chances are better than that, however, and believe they will increase their vote by the fact that no regular republican candidate will appear, also by the fight that the two independents will make on each other.

No Humbug.

No humbug claims have to be made for Foley's Honey and Tar, the well known remedy for coughs, colds and lung troubles. STRONG WORDS OF PRAISE

What the Jefferson City People Think of Grace Hayward Co.

The Jefferson City Tribune has the following to say regarding the Grace Hayward Stock company which plays at the Airdome all this week and next:

The Grace Hayward Stock company closed their two weeks' engagement at the Airdome last night, and leave today for Sedalia, where they will play the next two weeks.

Since the opening of the Airdome no company has been so popular as the Grace Hayward Stock company. From the opening night to the closing night they have been greeted by big crowds. Standing room many nights has been at a premium. The last two nights here the Airdome was filled with people in every nook and corner. People paid to stand and see the show. The best people of the city were there. Every one was pleased. We predict that no company this season will be more popular than the Grace Hayward people.

The favorite of the company in the capital city was Lew Welch, the comedian. He numbers his admirers in this city by the hundreds. Personally, he has made many friends in this city, who will always remember the two weeks he spent with them. To show their appreciation and their friendship, the people of this city on the closing night sent bouquets of hundreds of flowers to the stage for him while he was putting on his special between acts. Lew Welch is one of the best on the stage today. He will make his mark and will be remembered forever by our people.

FLOOD DAMAGE AT SPRINGS

Heavy Rains Swept Away Foot Bridges and Flooded Houses.

Excelsior Springs, Mo., June 29.—A heavy rain at 9:15 o'clock last night was followed at 10:45 o'clock by a terrific downpour, which caused the already swollen East and Dry Forks of Fishing river to overflow.

More than 200 persons in the bottoms along these streams were forced to leave their homes. Several women were carried from inundated houses to places of safety. Three foot bridges were carried away. One of these leads from Siloam spring to "Lovers' Lane" on the way to Regent spring. The water of East Fork had overflowed the tennis courts and croquet grounds of Regent spring and threatened to flood the big spring.

The water from the fork rose so high in Marietta street that horses had to be led swimming from Reid's livery barn, two blocks south of Snapp's hotel. Only the gables of houses on the flats south of Siloam spring were in view at midnight. Two of the foot bridges swept away span Dry Fork, leading to Sunny Side in the northeast part of town.

At midnight it was impossible to estimate the damage.

VANDALS CAUSED A WRECK

Fishplates Were Removed, Killing the Engineer.

Cleveland, O., June 29.—Erie railroad officials who returned from the scene of the wreck near Garrettsville reported that the derailment of the train had been caused by train wreckers.

Investigation showed that all of the spikes had been pulled and the splice bars removed from one entire rail. The rail was lying loose on the ties. The tools with which the work had been done were found lying near the track.

The company has placed a number of detectives on the case and has also offered a reward of $500 for the capture of the persons who caused the wreck.

The train was one of the fastest on the road, being bound from Pittsburg to Cleveland, with 150 passengers. The engineer was killed and a half dozen persons injured.

TOOK HIS OWN FROM ROBBER

How a Pilgrim Got Back His Stolen Purse in Church.

From Czenstochowa, the Mecca of Polish pilgrims, comes an amazing story of coincidences. A pilgrim went to one of the priests and complained that some thief had stolen his purse while he was in church, and asked for money. The priest replied that he had no money and that the best thing for the pilgrim to do was to try to find the thief. "I shall go into the church and steal money from somebody else," said the pilgrim, "for I have nothing to go home with." He went into the church and seeing a man in the crowd with a wallet on his back slipped his hand into it and pulled out his own stolen purse, with the exact sum he had left in it. He was so glad to find his money that he hurried off to tell the priest and the thief got away.

First Idea of the Telegraph.

Long before Prof. S. F. B. Morse had perfected his great invention the word "telegraph" was used for a sort of semaphore. In the French revolution a "telegraph" assisted by telescopes, was devised to carry news over immense distances. Forty years before this time, however, there was published the first detailed scheme for communication by means of electricity. It is outlined in a letter to the Scots magazine, written February 1, 1753, from Renfrew and signed "C. M." This suggestion was to transmit a "charge from the conductor of an electrical machine at the sending station along an insulated wire to the receiving machine, the presence of the charge being indicated by the behavior of a light pith ball or the passage of a spark." Each letter of the alphabet was to have a separate wire, so that any word might be spelled out and any message sent.

It is equally successful for summer diarrhea and cholera infantum in children, and is the means of saving the lives of many children each year.

ROADS MUST BE GOOD

Otherwise Rural Free Delivery Will Be Discontinued.

Washington, June 29.—In line with the movement recently inaugurated by the post office department to co-operate within its limitations with all highway officials looking to the improvement of roads in the various states, the clerks in the division of rural free delivery are sending out notices to local highway officials warning them that rural delivery will not be continued on roads not kept in good condition. Reports thus far received show greater activity than heretofore in the reconstruction and repair of highways in various localities.

HONOR BAILEY'S MEMORY

THE HOUSE WHERE THOMAS BAILEY ALDRICH SPENT HIS BOYHOOD DAYS.

OPENING OF A MEMORIAL MUSEUM

A VERITABLE TREASURE TROVE OF LITERARY WEALTH—WILL ATTRACT MANY TO PORTSMOUTH, NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Portsmouth, N. H., June 29.—Signal honor will be paid tomorrow to the memory of one of America's foremost men of letters, Thomas Bailey Aldrich, with noteworthy exercises which will mark the formal opening of the Thomas Bailey Aldrich Memorial Museum. The old Bailey house has been transformed into a veritable treasure trove of literary wealth and will likely, in future years, become the Mecca of thousands of admirers of Portsmouth's most famous son.

Scores of prominent people, including many famous writers, will be here for tomorrow's celebration.

After the exercises the guests from other cities will visit the Nutter house, made famous in "The Story of a Bad Boy," and inspect it; afterward they will enjoy a lunch at Rockingham.

To all of those who have read "The Story of a Bad Boy" it is believed that the house in which Mr. Aldrich spent his boyhood days will be of exceptional interest. The old house on Court street in which Mr. Aldrich resided is of the substantial pattern built by New Englanders nearly a century ago and belonged to his grandfather, Thomas Darling Bailey.

When Mr. Bailey died he left three daughters, and they had their choice of the household effects. Mrs. Aldrich was given the greater portion of the contents, and these being handed down to her son's family make it possible to reproduce the Bailey homestead practically as it was when Mr. Aldrich was a little boy.

CURES WOMAN'S WEAKNESSES.

We refer to that boor to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John Fife one of the Editorial Staff of THE ELECTRIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Helonias Diotica) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a tonic invigorator  makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system. He continues in Helonias we have a medicine which more fully answers the above purpose than any other I have ever been acquainted with. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this root."—Dr. John Fife.

"The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn root): Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhoea; atonic (weak) condition of the reproductive organs; dysmenorrhoea; depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women; constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; a slight (faint) flow due to a weak condition of the reproductive organs; amenorrhea (suppressed or absent monthly period); arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and the blood vessels (thin blood); habitual sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

"If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is the Unicorn root, or Helonias, and the medicinal properties of which it most faithfully represents."

Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Benét Medical College, Chicago, says:

"It is an important remedy in disorders of the heart and all catarrhal conditions."

Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal:

"Value of the astringent hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flowing) and convulsive dysmenorrhoea (painful menstruation)."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended.

during the four days the institute will remain in session. According to the report of Ralph W. Pope, secretary, the present membership of the institute is 5,732, an increase of over 25 per cent during the last year.

THE OVER-FLOWED LANDS

WHAT SHOULD BE PLANTED IN ORDER TO REALIZE A FAIR PROFIT.

EXPERIMENT STATION "POINTER"

M. F. Miller, Who Is an Authority on the Subject, Gives Some Information for Readers of the Democrat-Sentinel.

Columbia, Mo., June 29.—A large number of inquiries have reached the Experiment Station regarding profitable crops for planting on the recently overflowed lands. Most of these men want money crops and it is consequently a little more difficult to recommend crops which will be suitable than if they were to be used for home feeding.

Where early corn can be secured such as Silver Mine, Pride of the North, or in the southern part of the state varieties as late as Reid's Yellow Dent or Leaming, this will be evidently the very best money crop that can be planted on the bottoms.

Corn planted by the tenth of July ought to make good feed with an average season, and with a late fall should make a marketable product. In regions near a market some varieties of sweet and table corn may bring a good profit, although they are very apt to be bothered by worms when planted late.

One of the very best crops and one which is almost sure of maturity is millet. The Siberian millet is the earliest, although the Northern and Southern grown German millets and the Hungarian are very good. These crops will make a large yield of hay or seed if planted any time before the middle of July in most of the river counties. Sorghum can also be sown up until the tenth of July and a fair crop expected. It may be either sown broadcast at the rate of four pecks per acre or it may be drilled with a drill if it is to be cut for hay. It may also be planted in rows with a corn planter at the rate of one peck per acre.

Either the Early Amber, the Early Orange or the Coleman will give good results. When planted in rows it may be cut with a corn binder and shocked and the seed may be threshed or it may be fed directly.

Where seed can be secured at a moderate cost cowpeas may be sown up until the 15th of July with profit. This is not usually considered a very good bottom land crop, as the plants tend to grow most too much to vine, especially when sown late.

Cowpea has great value for feed and frequently where means can be provided for threshing, the seed and the baled straw from the machine may be marketed. In sowing cowpeas for seed they may either be rouned with a corn planter at the rate of 1½ to 2 pecks per acre or they may be drilled with a drill at the rate of about 3 pecks per acre. For forage, drilling at the rate of 4 pecks per acre will give better results. They may be sown broadcast at approximately the same rate if no drill is available, providing the ground is put into good shape and they are well harrowed in.

Field beans may well be planted late and give a good return. They may be put in with a corn planter and cultivated and with proper care will make a good yield. Harvester either by pulling and flailing out or with a bean harvester and bean thresher they can be made to yield a fair profit.

For pasture crops cowpeas or rape may be used. The cowpeas should be sown as for hay and should be turned into about the time the pods set or begin to ripen. Rape should be sown at the rate of 3 or 4 lbs. per acre broadcast and harrowed in lightly.

On many bottom lands rape sown in this way will give results, although with the hot weather that is likely to follow this wet period there is danger of it not doing well.—M. F. Miller, Agricultural experiment Station, Columbia, Missouri.

PENSION MRS. CLEVELAND

Widows of Other Presidents Have Received $5,000 Per Year.

Washington, June 29.—In view of the fact that former President Cleveland left but a small estate, it is probable that congress will pension Mrs. Cleveland at the next session.

Mrs. Garfield has received $5,000 a year since 1882. Mrs. Harrison has not been pensioned. She was the second wife, marrying former President Harrison after he had left the White House.

There Are Some Things in Which a Want Ad. Cannot Help You, But Not Many Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble plagues both the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness disappear with the kidneys out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Mayor "Tom" Johnson Turns the Keys of the City Over to the Educators —Great Spelling Bee at Rockefeller Park.

Cleveland, O., June 29.—Bookish, learned college professors from the university centers, well dressed, worldly pedagogues from the great cities, awkward youths from the district school, and last, but not least, thousands of gaily gowned, smiling school ma'ms from all over the land—these are the component parts of the vast crowd that has captured Cleveland today. This afternoon Mayor Tom Johnson turned the keys of the city over to the invaders, thus formally inaugurating the semi-centennial convention of the National Educational association, founded in Cincinnati in 1858.

Seldom before has the Ohio metropolis been called upon to entertain such a large assemblage, but many citizens have come to the rescue of the hotels and every visiting teacher, whether the head of a great university or the "principal" of the Podunk "deestrick skule," will be entertained in a lavish manner that will render the name of Cleveland a synonym for hospitality. It is estimated that between 20,000 and 30,000 teachers are in the city today, and every train is adding to the number.

Among the features of convention week will be a national spelling bee, in which grammar school students of several cities will compete for national honors. Sectional meetings will be held by all the various divisions, and every phase of teaching the young idea how to shoot will be considered by experts.

The discussion will begin with the first moment of the child's life and will extend through complete development. Education aside from that in the school room will be taken up, and such topics as playgrounds, Indian education, business education, physical training and sociological and philanthropic interests will form part of the discussions.

Among those who will speak are Superintendent W. H. Maxwell, of New York; President W. O. Thompson, of the Ohio University; President Joseph Swain, of Swarthmore college; President Charles F. Thwing, of the Western Reserve University; Clarendon S. H. Brereton, of division inspector for the London Council; Andrew S. Draper, commissioner of education of New York state; President J. C. Willis, of the Louisville University; Booker T. Washington, Martin G. Brumbaugh, city superintendent of Philadelphia; Jane Addams, of the Hull House, Chicago, and Andrew F. West, of Princeton university.

The attendance may swell to 60,000 or more. The record attendance of the N. E. A. was at the Boston convention in 1903, when 35,000 teachers were registered. Cleveland entertained the association thirty-eight years ago. The city then had a population of 92,000 and its guests, members of the association, were 170. The organization then was eight years old.

The national spelling bee is to be held in Rockefeller park, and the open air reception in the university circle, in which 500 boys will sing, three bands play and thousands of electric lights furnish illumination. The work of preparation for the convention has consumed almost a year. The $60,000 needed for expenses has been collected by subscription.

GIRL'S SUITOR WAS SHOT

FOLLOWS CLANDESTINE VISIT OF YOUTH TO HIS SWEET-HEART'S HOME.

IT OCCURRED IN RANDOLPH COUNTY

The Slayer, Who Is in Custody, Pleads That It Was a Mistake, as He Mistook Thos. J. Bagby for a Burglar.

Huntsville, Mo., June 29.—Thomas J. Bagby, 20 years old, was shot and killed near here Saturday night, while standing outside the window to the room of his sweetheart, 17 years old, whose brother had forbidden him the premises.

E. J. Carter, Jr., the girl's brother, who is held pending the inquest, admits he shot Bagby, but declares he mistook him for a burglar, and did not know he had killed his sister's suitor until he struck a light and looked at the dead youth's face.

The Carters and Bagbys are neighbors, and respected, well-to-do Randolph county farmers. They live five miles south of Huntsville, and the two families were on friendly terms until young Bagby began paying attention to his neighbor's pretty daughter.

Young Carter did not favor Bagby as a suitor for his sister's hand, and torrid him to see her or come on the place. Through friends the boy and girl heard from each other and arranged a meeting. Bagby went to the Carter farm at 9 o'clock Saturday night and signalled to the girl.

Carter heard the signal, and from his window could see the form of a man skulking about the lawn near the house. He procured his shotgun and went to the door, from where he called to the intruder. Receiving no answer he fired. His sister screamed. The figure at the window swayed and was brought to the ground by a second shot.

Carter struck a match and went to

BUSINESS OR DRESS SUITS; SUMMER SUITINGS.—LOEWER, TAILOR

RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

WAGE INCREASE ON ELECTRIC RAILWAY IN SOUTHWESTERN MISSOURI.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

The conductors and motormen of the Southwest Missouri electric railway are jubilant over the fact that after July 1 they will receive an increase in pay, says the Joplin Globe. The wage schedule will be arranged according to the number of years spent in the company's employ.

Those having worked one year or less will receive 20 cents an hour, and for each additional year of their employ will be given an increase of 1 cent an hour.

The number of hours of work vary with conditions, averaging about 11 or 12 daily, so this increase will be of some consequence to the older employees who are now receiving but 21½ cents an hour.

Went to Work This Morning

A force of twenty-odd men, as anticipated in Sunday's Democrat-Sentinel, was put to work this morning at the new shops of the Missouri Pacific.

All were old employees, and included machinists and apprentices, blacksmiths and helpers, boilermakers and helpers and carpenters.

It is likely that other employees will be put to work during the week, to be followed by still others next week, and so on later along until a full force is employed in the several departments.

Bagby's friends declare that he received a note Saturday morning calling him to the Carter home. He is said to have informed his mother of this, but the note is missing and the identity of the writer is a mystery. The inquest will be held today.

Mrs. S. L. Bowen of Wayne, W. Va., writes: "I was a sufferer from kidney disease so that at times I could not get out of bed, and when I did I could not stand straight. I took Foley's Kidney Remedy.
